

Tuesday

Dear Jack:-

I was so glad to get your letter Dear, but you didn't say you were homesick. What in the matter don't you even miss me?

So you take Cheeka out every day do you? Better keep it up as Vera won't fool.

There is a lot of snow up here + the kids are all out with their sleighs.

I'm glad you are keeping your marks up and don't forget the units. Be sure you get them in on time + watch the neatness in your spelling book. I'm looking for B's on that report card.

Daddy will send you your dollar Thursday.

Don't forget to send me a copy of your report card + do be a good boy + write me often.

All my love

Mother. XXXXXXXXX

Dear Jack:

Well Mama

finally got here. She is just fine but pretty lonesome for you. She is anxious to see your report card. All B's and I send the buck so better be good young fellow. I'll write you Thursday. It's pay day. Think Mama has me hooked already for fun.

Love, Daddy
