D17 Goodwill Day

Today we honor Aileen Osofsky of Phoenix for her lifetime of humane contributions, especially for her 25-year dedication to the ACBL Goodwill Committee. Join us.

- Julee Landau will be set up outside the ballroom and will be collecting donations in Aileen Osofsky's honor which will go towards the ACBL Preservation & Advancement of Bridge. These are tax deductible.
- The Goodwill Reception will be in the gorgeous Hospitality Suite, Room 8209 from 4:30-6:00. Ken Barbour will be a speaker and Bonnie Bagley will offer a few words as Aileen's National Goodwill Co-Chair.
- Be sure to pick up and wear your red Goodwill Bracelets in Aileen's honor.
- Please use the autograph book to write in which will go to the Osofsky family.

Aileen Osofsky Tributes

Aileen was truly the Goodwill Ambassador for bridge. It was an honor and a pleasure to be her Co-Chairman for the past four years. She touched the lives of everyone who knew her, and even those who didn't. It is through her diligent efforts that bridge has become a kinder, more courteous game – her lasting legacy.

–Bonnie Bagley, ACBL Goodwill Co-Chair

Aileen was more than just the chair of the Goodwill Committee. She was my mentor in many things. Aileen was generous to a fault, she was a lover of life and she had a quality that not many people have. Every time I was with her she made me feel like I was one of the most important people in the world. I miss her.

–Jay Baum, ACBL CEO

I am sorry to hear about Aileen's death. Although I only met her a few times, Aileen made a strong, positive impression. I was looking forward to seeing more of her.

–Rod Bias

I am so sorry to hear of Aileen's passing. She was a truly great lady, the epitome of Goodwill.

–Love, Marianne Spanier, D17 Representative

Aileen was a magnet of love and friendship. When she looked into my eyes she pierced the hardness and left a lasting memory on my heart no other person has ever reached. I will miss her every day and her memory will always be with me.

–Ken Monzingo, Forum Publisher

This is tough ... how do you say all that should be said about her in a few words? People like Aileen don't come along very often! I feel so lucky to have known this warm, generous, hard working, loving woman. She leaves a huge hole in all the areas she touched.

–Suzette Wynn

District 17 is proud to have had Aileen Osofsky as a member during the winter seasons. We can all best honor her memory by practicing goodwill towards our fellow players at the table and in our lives.

–John Van Ness, President, District 17

I offer my congratulations to the Phoenix Unit for establishing and hosting this Goodwill Day. And how appropriate! Aileen Osofsky, the chair of the ACBL national Goodwill Committee since 1985, never failed to make it clear to me that she was a half time member of District 17 and the Phoenix Unit. Aileen was a powerful force for civility and friendliness at the bridge table and elsewhere. She practiced what she preached. She was always upbeat, and always had a kind word. Her presence was uplifting. Aileen was one of the most gracious ladies I've ever met. We've lost a crown jewel. Let's never lose what she has given us.

–Jerry Fleming, Past ACBL President

Aileen Osofsky

September 6, 1926-June 22, 2010

Aileen Bryant was born in Brooklyn, the third of four children. Her father, Harry Bryant, was an architect and builder whose commission to construct military barracks took the family around the country. She met her future husband, Meyer Osofsky, while in school. They married in 1945. Meyer founded "Aileen," a popular women's sportswear line named for his wife. In 1969, the couple built their dream home and settled in Shelter Island. The architect Norman Jaffe designed the house featured in Weekend Utopia: Modern Living in the Hamptons and in the Romantic Modernist: The Life and Work of Norman Jaffe, at the Parrish Art Museum in 2005.

With her husband and daughter, Aileen donated the Manhasset Chapel (Mechanic's Hall) to the Shelter Island Historical Society.

The Woman

Aileen Osofsky founded Shelter Without Walls, a Jewish Family and Children's Service program that helps transform the lives of domestic violence victims. The Jewish Federation of Greater Phoenix, Women's Philanthropy Division, gave Osofsky in 2006 the Gerda Weissmann Klein and Kurt Klein Award for contributing 10 or more years of service to both the Jewish and general communities. She was on boards of many other organizations, including the Women's Philanthropy Board of the Jewish Federation of Greater Phoenix, Jewish Community Foundation and Brandeis University National Women's Committee.

In 1991 Aileen and Meyer co-funded an airplane transfer of Russian Jewish refugees to Israel.

American Contract Bridge League

Aileen was asked to chair the ACBL Goodwill Committee in 1985 even though she was not a member of the committee. She quickly took to the job and expanded the organization's goodwill efforts by extolling the use of bidding boxes to facilitate play for the hard of hearing, working to include youth players, and promoting Active Ethics to improve the quality of player conduct. She was elected to the ACBL Hall of Fame in 2009 by receiving the Blackwood Award, for individual contributions to bridge without necessarily being a great player. In her 25 years of service as Goodwill chair, Osofsky never stopped trying to convince ACBL members that friendly demeanor at the bridge table is good for everyone. A few days prior to her death, in a letter to the ACBL, Aileen reflected on her long association with the bridge organization:

"When I got a call twenty-five years ago asking me to become the chair of the National Goodwill Committee, I had no idea how profound and positive an impact the organization and its members would have on my life.

"As I transition now to a less involved role in the activities of the ACBL, I must acknowledge the paramount part that the organization has played in filling my life with joy, passion, and meaning - and I must thank you all from the bottom of my heart for giving me the opportunity to participate in the group's work, and for doing that work with me." — Aileen Osofsky

Good Will

During the Goodwill Committee Reception, chaired by Bonnie Bagley at the Summer 2010 North American Bridge Championships in New Orleans, ACBL President Rich DeMartino announced that the committee was renamed the Aileen Osofsky ACBL Goodwill Committee in her honor. Lesley Davis was one of the featured speakers at this stirring dedication, along with DeMartino, ACBL CEO Jay Baum, Gail Greenburg and Aileen's son Alan Osofsky.

Chaparral Room 6:15-6:45 p.m.

Leon Lowe Fountain Hills

"Improving at Match Points"

Leon is an Emerald Life Master (over 9200 Masterpoints) with numerous Regional and Sectional wins. He is best known for an aggressive Match Point and Board-A-Match style that was heavily influenced by Barry Crane's "rules" of bidding and play. Before retiring Leon did public speaking so his presentations are frequently upbeat and entertaining.

Registration/Door Prizes

Players, please register at the desk before entering the playing area. Be sure to pick up one of those popular Kokopelli decals you can affix to your convention card and show off "where you've been." Also be sure to try your chance at a prize by guessing the number of cards in the fish bowl. Fish bowl winners will also be listed in the following day's bulletin.

The Registration Desk will be open one hour before each session and close 10 Also on hand will be information on restaurants and sights to see in the Scottsdale area.

Every day we will be giving away super door prizes. You don't have to be present to win but make sure you claim them at the Registration Desk by the end of the tournament. Winners names will be drawn during morning and afternoon sessions with winners posted on an easel next to the desk.

The Registration Committee headed by Nancy Goulet has put together a fabulous group of prizes from generous restaurants and retailers including the Doubletree Paradise Valley Hotel/Resort which is offering dinners to lucky players. minutes before the start of the game.

Hospitality Suite

The tournament Hospitality Suite 8209 will be open today from 4:30-6:00 p.m. and also from 10:15-11:00 p.m. Today at 4:30 the suite will host the Goodwill Open Reception in honor of the late Aileen Osofsky. Please join us.

Guest Speaker Feedback

Bud Marsh emphasized counting and illustrated a squeeze play. He stressed the difficulty of the game and advised players to study their bridge books, not just read them.

Sheila Shapiro of Scottsdale said, "It opened my eyes to counting and distribution so you can get that trick you didn't think you could make."

Roberta Eisman of Tucson: "I need the cards in my hand to understand. It was way over my head."

Dianna McGinn of Tucson: "I liked it; I'm interested in squeeze plays, but I think there was another way to play the hand."

Daily Bulletin

If you come upon any interesting hands or hear about some special achievement, be sure to report that information to the Registration Desk for inclusion in the Daily Bulletin.

Please include your name and phone number in case we have questions.

Partnerships

Need a partner or help putting together a winning team? Come to the Partnership Desk and we'll fix you up. We can't always guarantee a perfect "fit" but we'll try our best.

You'll need to fill out a sign-up sheet with the basic information, like your name, total number of masterpoints, bidding system (standard or 2/1) and how you can be reached. Cell phone numbers or Internet addresses are particularly handy.

Alice Pierce and members of the Partnership Committee will do their best to accommodate your needs and find appropriate partners, both novice and experienced, for all sessions.

Darryl Wins Fish Bowl Contest

Darryl Sauer of Ormond Beach, Fla. guessed closest - 521- the number of cards in the fish bowl. He was just two away-523. Congratulations.

They Win Dinners & Wine

The lucky registration winners for Tuesday included Jeannette Hallquist of Charlottesville, Val who received a goodie basket and wine. The dinner certificate winners included Bob Crabb of Sedona, William Travis, Phoenix and Don Freeland, Thousand Palms, Calif.

Pro-Am A Record

Eighty players - a record number! - turned out to play with less experienced players in Monday's successful Pro-Am game. But a finger-wagging "naughty, naughty" to a playing director who psyched.

Tucson Great Chiefs Regional

Tucson hosts the final District 17 regional tournament of the year, October 4-10 at the Holiday Inn Palo Verde. A beautiful city, moderate temperatures, and an excellent schedule of events await you at this tournament. Please pick up a flyer and also check out the ad in the current issue of ScoreCard for the complete schedule and information on the host hotel. Make sure you set aside a little time to see some of the great tourist attractions this southwest city has to offer.

This tournament isn't on the schedule every year, so don't miss this one. Bridge and sun; it's a fine combination.
